

Logan Square Walks needs YOU for

Clean & Green Day

Saturday May 14, 2005

9 am – 3 pm

Rain or shine

A volunteer cleanup and planting of CTA Blue Line Logan Square station area

Join 100 of your neighbors in beautifying the patch of land near the Logan Square station south entrance! Help make this hub of community activity even more pleasant for all with

CLEANING NEW NATIVE PLANTS TRASH BIN

All you have to bring is your energy and willing hands. Children welcome. If you are able, please also bring:

- A hardy perennial to plant (in exchange for instant membership in Logan Square Walks, normally $5)
- your own shovel, rake, hand trowel/spade, or wheelbarrow to lend for the day
- a refreshment to share
- a small donation to offset costs

SEE YOU THERE!

The mission of Logan Square Walks is to promote pedestrian access, safety, awareness, and community. It is an inclusive organization, open to anyone interested in improving the pedestrian environment of Logan Square. See www.logansquarewalks.org
